To the members of Sustainable Belmont:

As you mark the end of your third year, the Board of Selectmen wishes to acknowledge your extraordinary achievements in educating Belmont on the need, and the actions necessary to preserve our environment in the face of the many challenges resulting from climate change.

You have had an impact on Town Government policy and residents' behavior, and you have been tireless in your efforts to advocate for ever more community involvement and activity in the areas of energy conservation and environmental preservation.

Congratulations! We look forward to your continuing advocacy and leadership.

Sincerely,

Belmont Board of Selectmen

Angelo R. Firenze, Chair

Paul Solomon, Vice Chair

Daniel C. Leclerc
